In a short time the negroes returned armed with stones and bricks, which they hurled through the open doorway. One of the missiles struck Dedrich on the back of the head, inflicting an ugly wound.

The thieves fled when they saw him all.

Dedrich was removed to the New York Hispital in an ambulance. The police have been unable to locate the negroes.

HORSE STEALING IN TOWN.

Herman and McDermott Took an Expressman's Horse and Wagon. Detectives Weller and Gratz, of the East Sixty-seventh street police station, brought into Hariem Police Court this morning Louis Herman, twenty-five years old, of Third avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street, and John McDermott, twenty-seveu years old, of 328 East Seventy-ninth street, charged with horse stealing. The two prisoners were held in $1,000 bond each for further examination.

The detectives say that the two men stole a horse and wagon from Expressman George F. Zinn, of 207 East Seventeenth street, and tried to dispose of them at the horse market for $25.

In court Herman was recognized by Mrs. Hoffman, of 228 East Ninety-ninth street, as the man who burglarized her flat two months ago. No complaint was entered against him, however, on the last-named account. old, of 328 East Seventy-ninth street,

"You may lead a horse to water, but you can't make him take turtle soup, particularly when the turtle is alive."
Following the horse's unbent gaze, Dugan discovered the turtle and removed it, with the intention of taking it home. There is no possible way of determining how the little reptile got there, as, small as it was, it could not possibly pass through the pipes. It was probably dropped there by some one who got it at a fish market, and was tired of it as a pet.
